Theory

After the adipose tissue of the target care site is sucked into the cooling probe, the cooling probe releases a 360-degree surrounding cooling energy to act on the fat cells without damaging any surrounding tissue. Cryocool's steady and powerful cooling energy triggers a natural cell death process called "apoptosis", after which apoptotic fat cells are excreted through the body's natural metabolic process. Cryocool targets fat cells for permanent removal from the body, resulting in significant fat loss in the treated area.

Warm-up technology to accelerate blood circulation

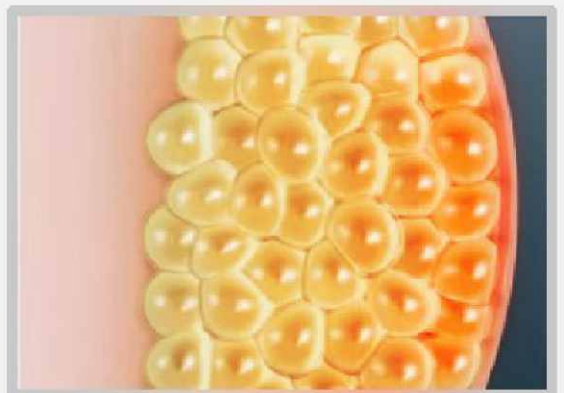

In the weeks to follow, your body naturally process the fat and eliminates these dead cells.

Hi Ruby, i like this new design I usually use the 4 handle for 2 clients treatment, clients are very satisfied. I think I will buy the other size applicators for more body parts.

The warm up is very GOOD, and also the powerful cooling minus 15 degrees, my clients like it very much, she can use lunch time have a fat loss treatment, my work become busy now, thank you !

I'm very good at all the details of your device and your product is the one I trust most.the screen on hair removal handle, the treatment site of crylipolysis, all it is very convenient ,especially medical frozen membrane and filter cotton. I put the report in my clinic, and my client is very relieved to do the treatment. I have recommended your contact information to my friends, who also wants to increase item of the weight loss treatment.

Very well, I promoted it last week, many people like the design of this handle, easy replace the applicator and all of them have been reserved, now I want to order another 5 ,3 white ones and 2 gray ones which all with my logo
